1. Introduction

The object of PAIA is to foster a culture of transparency and accountability in public and private bodies and give effect to the constitutional right of access to information.

PAIA establishes, among other things, the right to request access to the records of a private body where access is required for the exercise of the protection of rights, the request complies with all the procedural requirements and access is not refused on any ground referred to in PAIA.

The object of POPI is the protection of the right to privacy, which entails the safeguarding of personal information by regulating the manner in which such personal information may be processed by both public and private bodies. POPI provides persons with rights and remedies to protect their personal information from processing not performed in accordance with the Act.

One of the requirements of PAIA (as amended by POPI) is the compilation by a private body of a Manual which provides certain information pertaining to the private body, the types and categories of records which it holds, the manner in which it processes personal information and sufficient detail to facilitate a request for access to a record of the body.

2. Overview of this Manual

Among other things, this Manual contains the contact details of the Company, including its postal and street address, the categories of records held by the Company and a list of the records of the Company which are available in terms of other legislation.

For the purposes of PAIA, this Manual refers to the procedure to be followed by a requester, as defined in section 1 of that Act, and the manner in which a request for access, as envisaged therein, will be facilitated. An example of the request form for access to a record of the Company is provided.

For the purposes of POPI, this Manual provides, among other things, the categories of data subjects on which the Company holds records and the categories of records held on each subject. In addition, it contains details regarding the purpose of the processing of personal information, as well as the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied and particulars regarding transborder flows of personal information. It also contains a general description of the security measures implemented by the Company to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the information which is processed by it.

Please note that the successful completion and submission of a REQUEST FOR ACCESS TO RECORD form does not automatically allow the requester access to the requested record. An application for access to a record is subject to certain limitations if the requested record falls within a certain category as specified within PART 3, CHAPTER 4 of PAIA. If it is reasonably suspected that the requester has obtained access to records through the submission of materially false or misleading information, legal proceedings may be instituted against such requester.

The aforesaid 30 (thirty) day period may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 (thirty) days if the request is for a large volume of information, or the request requires a search for information held at other offices of the Company and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 (thirty) day period. The requester will be notified in writing should an extension be sought.

9.5 Grounds for refusal of access to records
